

A WORD FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Prof. Camelia OPREAN - STAN, PH.D

The Management for Sustainable Development Journal (online ISSN 2247-0220, print ISSN-L 2066-9320) is one of the significant academic journals published under the aegis of The Academic Management Society of Romania (SAMRO) which benefits from the scientific contribution of prestigious academics and researchers with outstanding results in the fields of management, economic engineering as well as other interdisciplinary areas. The journal was set up in the year 2000 with the main goal of promoting knowledge-based sustainable management enabled by the networking and cooperation of Romanian academic elites with other renown international management institutions.

SAMRO organizes an International Conference every other year gathering the prestigious researchers and academics worldwide. In addition to this conference, mention should also be made of other conferences co-organized by SAMRO: the International Economics Conference (IECS – Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu; the 24th edition in 2017); the International Conference – Managerial Challenges of Contemporary Society (Babes Bolyai University of Cluj-Napoca; 10th edition in 2017); the International Scientific Conference Knowledge-Based Organization (KBO – Land Force Academy “Nicolae Balcescu” Sibiu, 23rd edition in 2017); International Symposium on Management Challenges and Innovation in Management and Entrepreneurship (SIM – West University of Timisoara, 14th edition in 2017); the International Management Conference (Academy of Economic Sciences of Bucharest, 11th edition in 2017); the International Conference on European Integration - New Challenges (EINCO, 13th edition in 2017).

Furthermore, based on ample and comprehensive research, a synthesis of the health status of the Romanian management is published every year. The SAMRO Newsletter has also been issued monthly, since May 2009 in view of providing a proper context for reinforcing the SAMRO community and latest dissemination of management-related topics; the 98th issued was released in June 2017.
